I also love that art for all the reasons you said. The soldier's face is so expressive: guarded and resigned but also just sad. Coupled with Foertsch's use of a word like "suffering" (as distinct from "feeling pain"), there's this sense of the hybrid ADVENT forces as being capable of subjectivity and reflection on their deaths—just like us.

Mild spoilers ahead... So my copy of Art of XCom 2 showed up today and I can't figure out if I should be disappointed in the book or the game. There are no previously unannounced aliens in the book and references to three tiers of technologies again. So either the PR/press for the game has hyped up the "more aliens" and "more tech" or there is art and concepts for things that are completely ...
