The first conflict selected is the Battle of Marathon in 490BC and the last is Desert Storm in 1991. The use of the titular term battles does not confine the narrative to a single event or a specific day; rather it is a device to simplify the descriptive process. A prime example is the Somme in 1916, which was a succession of battles and not ...

The Battle of Glorieta Pass in the northern New Mexico Territory, was the decisive battle of the New Mexico Campaign during the American Civil War. Dubbed the "Gettysburg of the West" by some authors, it was intended as the decisive blow by Confederate forces to break the Union possession of the West along the base of the Rocky Mountains. It was fought at Glorieta Pass in the Sangre de Cristo Mountains in what is now New Mexico, and was an important event in the history of the New Mexico Territo
