SOME VIEWS ON PRICING AND EC COMPETITION POLICY

Abstract. This article considers how the boundaries of an undertaking or economic unit are identified in EU competition law. As an undertaking may be made up of several persons, it is not always easy to know when it comprises a natural person, a legal person or a group of persons (such as principal and agent, parent and subsidiaries or parent (s) and JV) and, consequently, whether such persons are acting unilaterally or jointly for the purposes of the competition law rules.
