The Shadow Land by Elizabeth Kostova, Paperback | Barnes ...

The Historian is based on Bram Stoker's Dracula. It is also an open secret that I did not really like that book and you can read all about that in my review of that book. The Historian is in the first person narrative. First person narrative of not just one person at that.

The Historian by Elizabeth Kostova - Hina Loves To Read

The Historian took Elizabeth Kostova ten years to write - and it shows. The story is multilayered, you come to care about the characters, and you feel as if he is standing behind you in the dark as you read. Not only does it make me want to take trains all over Europe and delve into my academic research, but the history is by and large correct.
